Russia Weak Says Gunther

In 'Inside Europe' Today

This is the first of twelve articles by John Gunther, author of "Inside Europe," "Inside Asia," "Inside South America," and "Inside U.S.A.," who recently returned from an extensive trip to Europe.—EDITOR.

CHAPTER I.

Recently I returned to old fadades in Europe, nibbling at them for the first time since the war and in the sharply magnified glare of a new world situation. This series of articles is in the nature of a brief report of what I heard and saw.

To confirm what might be called my terms of reference, I visited Italy first. The Apennines were our breakfast: there came flights to Greece and Turkey and back, followed by an interlude in Trieste. We were lucky enough to get visas to four of the five countries, and in Vienna, stopped for a breakfast of brief and friendly, and with the air left out of Berlin. Then Paris, Antwerp, Amsterdam, London and home. We were refused visas by the Soviet Union, and hence could not visit Moscow. But for months we

Claims War Unlikely

First, the most important single thing to say about Europe, as it is, is that, barring unpredictable accident, the outbreak of open warfare is unlikely. Second, the most remarkable change between Europe then and now is that we know before the war and Europe now is the extension of the American frontier. I do not mean merely that no step is taken in any European country without careful thought of what the reaction in Washington will be. I am thinking more of the fantastic and enormous power of the machine that develops upon the European cash, credit and military influence. Politically, as we all know, the Marshall plan points out a channel of dollars by the use of which Europe is hoped, will be helped. Negatively, it is my honest belief that if American aid were withdrawn from Greece, for instance, the Greek government could not survive ten days. Nor

U.S. in Europe for Keeps

Indeed the face of Europe has been irrevocably changed. The intra-European frontier is now the western side has—everybody knows—become the main of conflict between two non-European powers, the United States and the Soviet Union. Third, the war ended more than three years ago, and yet the Third, this is certainly unfortunate, but the student of history should not forget that the United States fought the war for two years past and the United States was able to gain a tolerable peace, Legation. A case might well be made that, three years after World War I, things were much worse than they are today. Three years after World War I, even today, the United States is still fighting an immeasurably deeper. Fourth, the chief hope for Europe is the Marshall plan, the U.S. government, which is something that Americans are not likely to let go, but, that old style capitalism is as dead as Europe as Neuchâtel's aid.

Communist Hold Checked

Fifth, the power of the Communists has, I think, been checked. The danger of further Soviet victories in Europe is receding. This is not to say that Europe is entirely out of the woods as yet or that the future is indefinitely secure. But in Italy, Germany, France, and elsewhere, the Communists have suffered severe setbacks that last year. One reason for this is of course the Marshall plan, but there is a chief aim of Communist policy everywhere is to wreck the Marshall plan. As to single countries—again in the roughest outline—one might say the following: In the United States, the Communists are the most pretty good shape, all things considered. The case of Italy points to a strange paradox: that a loser in the war, the Communists, is now a winner. Europe is a mess: it is looking on the brink of chaos. The Turks, having no civil war to fight, give the impression of being robust and moderately secure. The Iron Curtain countries differ even under Communism. In the Balkans, the Communists are not likely to be able to generalize about the Balkans. In Poland, the Communists seem to be the toughest and fiercest. In Hungary, the Communists seem to be the toughest and fiercest. In Czechoslovakia, the Communists seem to be the toughest and fiercest. In the Soviet Union, the Communists seem to be the toughest and fiercest.

Moral Rot in France

Austria—to proceed—in a tragically full of difficulties, but not without hope. Germany today is not a country at all, but a vast arena of conflict between the emotional and political, Belgium, of all countries we visited, was the most interesting. The Netherlands still has a long way to go. The simplest thing to say about France is that much of it is afflicted with moral rot. In England, it is probably the healthiest state in Europe. The British work under terrific discipline and submit to terrific sacrifices, but they remain sane, stable, efficient and unified. One of the most other countries that they are still deep in crisis, and perhaps getting deeper. In Yugoslavia, one feels that it is on the way out, though no one knows exactly what "out" will finally turn out to be. Let me return to Point One above, which is something one can write a whole book about. It is in the extreme that the United States will deliver aid to make war on Russia; similarly direct aggression by Russia on

Oil Find is Reported At Barrhead

Discovery Made By Stanolind In Canadian Field

New oil discovery in the Barrhead district was reported today in Edmonton. Discovery was reported to be made by the Stanolind-Imperial Barrhead No. 1 about eight miles south and west of Barrhead. The well was plugged to a depth of 644 feet and was producing 1,417 feet level in the Madison limestone. Casing was set to the 3,000-foot level and the formation was washed with 240 gallons of acid followed by a 500 gallon acid treatment.

Survivor of Arctic Plague

Survivor Tells Story of Scourge

By Jack DeLong

Sole male survivor of a mysterious malady which ravaged an Arctic Eskimo settlement last spring, 15-year-old Kayoomyk of Cresswell Bay, told his story from his hospital bed here.

Cheerful and smiling, despite nearly a year of suffering, the young Eskimo spoke through an interpreter in the Dr. Charles Cammell hospital.

Kayoomyk was flown to Edmonton early today by an RCAF service plane from Fort Ross.

"I first got sick last summer after I started to feel chilly," Kayoomyk said. (Doctors think being chilly was probably the start of a fever.)

"My feet started to hurt so I just wrapped them up and lay down," continued Kayoomyk. "I didn't have any medicine and there were no doctors."

The other men in the settlement all died one after the other. They did not seem to have trouble with their feet. They had chest pains and were sick in their stomachs. (It is believed that nine men died in the Cresswell Bay settlement, leaving only four or five women, Kayoomyk and one or two children.)

"My feet hurt a whole lot until about Christmas time and then they started to feel much better," the young Eskimo said.

"I had never been in an airplane before and I sure enjoyed my ride in the plane down to Edmonton," he concluded.

Fare Increases Before Meeting

Special Session Called For Wednesday Afternoon

Proposal to increase transit system fares will be considered by city council's utilities committee Wednesday at 4:30 p.m.

Aldermen will deal with recommendations made by the city commissioners and Norman E. Wilson, Toronto radial traffic expert, for fare increases.

Commissioners recommended that the fare be increased to seven tickets for 25 cents instead of the present four for 25 cents, and that the issue of 17 for a dollar be discontinued.

NO CHANGE

They proposed no change in the children's fare schedule, but advocated limiting use of the tickets to off-peak traffic hours.

Their recommendations were submitted to city council prior to receiving the Wilson report at the end of January.

Fare increases recommended by Mr. Wilson were to three tickets for 25 cents, 13 tickets for a dollar and eight children's tickets for 25 cents instead of the 10 for 25 cents now prevailing.

Protests have been received from many organizations against the fare increase. These will be considered at the meeting.

Most of the protests suggest that instead of increasing the fare schedule, transit system's deficit should be charged to the city's general revenue.

Recently commissioners reported a deficit of approximately $150,000 in 1948 operations of the system, and estimated that a deficit of $100,000 would result from 1949 operations if fare increases were not made.

Wage dispute between the City of Edmonton and its electrical workers will be settled by arbitration.

City Council Monday night decided to refer the dispute to arbitration of the demands made by electricians employed in the power plant, telephone and electric light departments.

City Commissioner D. B. Menzies, City Aldermen that agreed to meet demands of the Electrical Workers' union and the amount of the increase the commissioners were prepared to recommend was not agreed to.

Commissioners said that wage increases of six to eight cents an hour retroactive to August 1, 1948, had been offered, but workers were demanding 25 cents an hour increase across the board for all classifications except apprentices.

Increases offered the electrical workers, commissioners reported, were in line with those given to other unions.

"We do not feel justified, nor does the cost-of-living index warrant, increasing our offer to the electrical workers," commissioners said.

The 25 cents an hour increase demanded by the workers would mean a wage increase of $500 a year for each worker.

Since there are over 2,000 languages spoken in the world today, the work of the Society is only half done, he said.

Rev. Schnell recently returned from London, England, where he attended the annual meeting of the society and several sessions of the Council of the British and Foreign Bible Society.

Attending the latter were representatives of 24 different countries. "We estimate that in the next few years, 60 million copies of the scriptures will be printed annually to meet the world need. In 1947, 270 tons of scriptures were shipped from the London Bible house to Europe, Asia, Africa, South America and islands in the Pacific.

They are working now on 41 new translations at the Bible house in London.

Asked how soon they hope to cover the world with the scriptures, Mr. Schnell only volunteered a record of the society to date. When the society was formed in 1804, there were 72 translations extant.

Dutton Blasts Rules As Donnybrook Cause

Hockey fights, like the recent Flyers-Caps donnybrook that are the product of poor ice rules.

That is the opinion of one of Alberta's biggest, big-time hockey stars, Mervyn "Red" Dutton, Calgary, former National Hockey League player and president and coach of the New York Americans.

In Edmonton to complete final arrangements for two drive-in theatres to be built here by the Western Drive-In Theatres Ltd., the new company he heads, Mr. Dutton grined when he was asked about recent hockey free-for-alls.

"The players fight because they know they can get away with it," he said in the Calder area.

"That's the way the rules are and the way they're enforced, but in my day it was different."

When he played big league hockey, "there was no checking into the boards and no high sticking," he said. "I only cut my layer once and that was because I intended to do so."

He did not name the players, but said he was in the Calder area.

During his hockey career Mr. Dutton established a reputation as a hard-hitting defence man.

One newspaper reporter described him during his season with the Calgary Tigers as "the flaming red-head who is always hugging into fights and generally headbutting over the ice with force, vituperative charges and body checks that are frame-shattering in their uncarrying presentation."

A dual career as professor of romance languages and head of the University of Alberta's Romance program is handled nicely by Lieut-Col. Dennis Healy, MBE.

The 37-year-old doctor of philosophy has a military standing backed up by a past which will compare favourably with any fiction, swashbuckling soldier-of-fortune.

A veteran of the Second World War, Lieut-Col. Healy was recently appointed chief of the University of Alberta's Training Corps. And this soldier and scholar has an unusual comprehension of "what goes on in the world."

Following his graduation from the University of Alberta arts faculty, in 1935, Healy went to England.

He spent four years there, then returned to Alberta to teach in the University of Alberta's Training Corps. He spent three years in the Corps, then joined the infantry in 1941.

Wage Demand To Arbitration

Wage dispute between the City of Edmonton and its electrical workers will be settled by arbitration.

City Council Monday night decided to refer the dispute to arbitration of the demands made by electricians employed in the power plant, telephone and electric light departments.

City Commissioner D. B. Menzies, City Aldermen that agreed to meet demands of the Electrical Workers' union and the amount of the increase the commissioners were prepared to recommend was not agreed to.

Commissioners said that wage increases of six to eight cents an hour retroactive to August 1, 1948, had been offered, but workers were demanding 25 cents an hour increase across the board for all classifications except apprentices.

Increases offered the electrical workers, commissioners reported, were in line with those given to other unions.

"We do not feel justified, nor does the cost-of-living index warrant, increasing our offer to the electrical workers," commissioners said.

The 25 cents an hour increase demanded by the workers would mean a wage increase of $500 a year for each worker.

Since there are over 2,000 languages spoken in the world today, the work of the Society is only half done, he said.

U.S. War Decision Hits West Europe

Newspapers Make Great Play Over Senate Stand

LONDON, Feb. 15.—(AP)—Rejection of any "atomic war" clause in the Atlantic pact by the United States hit the public of western Europe like a dash of ice water today.

"Senate bans war pledge" and "No automatic war for senators" morning paper headlines announced.

RED PRESS ACTIVE

The Communist press wasted not a minute turning the United States senators' stand into propaganda against the proposed defensive alliance.

In Berlin the Soviet army's Tagliche Rundschau proclaimed with satisfaction "a crisis in the Atlantic bloc." The Russian-owned National Zeitung headlined the story "Europe alone should bleed—America won't accept military obligations."

The news was greeted more calmly on the diplomatic level. There it had been recognized in advance that the senate was unlikely to approve any treaty which infringed on its constitutional right to declare war.

FEAR WATERING DOWN

But reliable sources said British diplomats fear now that the wording of the alliance may be watered down in the end that it will fail its purpose: to make a coalition of united strength which would deter any potential aggressor.

The diplomats fear that any apparent weakness of commitments under the treaty may scare off possible signers whose sympathies are with the west but who are under immense pressure from the Soviet Union.

'Mars Invasion' Death Toll In Ecuador Now 21

QUITO, Ecuador, Feb. 15.—(BUP)—Death toll in the destruction of the Radio Quito building by an enraged mob has risen to 21 people reported today.

The building, which also housed two newspapers, was burned Saturday night by radio listeners who became frightened and infuriated over a broadcast describing a mythical invasion of Ecuador by men from Mars.

Twenty bodies have been recovered from the ruins and one man was known to have leaped to his death from the blazing building. Other reports said 15 leaders of the mob have been arrested. Police also arrested Eduardo Alcaraz, director of the station. Alcaraz fled Quito and was arrested in the town of Ambato.

Double Suicide Pact Train Deaths Finding

MONTREAL, Feb. 15.—(BUP)—Earl Fauman and pretty Mrs. Martha Kelly died in a double suicide in a passenger train somewhere between Toronto and Montreal, a coroner's jury decided here today.

The jury returned its verdict just before noon today after the evidence of a Montreal police "pathologist," two Ontario and Montreal police.

Dr. Rosario Fontaine told a coroner's jury investigating the sordid deaths of the 39-year-old Toronto woman and her attractive 30-year-old companion, that he was positive the woman had killed the couple were both self-inflicted.

The bodies of Fauman and Mrs. Kelly were found lying in the

Military Tactics And Bridge Take Plans

War Orphans Scholarships, Inc. is an organization that was started by the bridge players of the nation during the war, to provide scholarships for the children of those who were killed in action. At their annual meeting in Washington recently, I am happy to say that this was re-elected president.

During my stay in Washington I had luncheon with Maj. Gen. A. M. Gruenther, director of the joint chiefs of staff, who is an interested and active member of the board of War Orphans Scholarships, Inc.

I asked General Gruenther what type of bridge players generals are. He replied that they do not get much time to play; but when they do play, there are two types—those who like to take a sporting chance, and those who carefully plan their bidding and play.

In today's hand, which was given to me by the general, some South players might make the mistake of going four hearts after North bids three hearts. But South must not forget that North was quite willing to allow the hand to be played at two hearts. Therefore his bid of three hearts over two spades is only a competitive bid, not an aggressive one.

West cashes the king of clubs and continues with the ace, which declarer ruffs with the deuce of hearts. Now if South rushes the ace and king of spades and ruffs the nine of spades in dummy, he can make his contract, because he is going to have to ruff three clubs.

The thing to do is to cash the ace of hearts, then lead the nine of diamonds. West wins this with the ace and leads back the six of clubs, which South ruffs with the three of hearts. Next he lets it ride, eight of diamonds and leads the East winning the trick with the jack.

He leads back the queen of clubs. South ruffs with the king of hearts and leads the five of diamonds. East wins this with the king, and his best play is to lead back the queen of spades, which declarer wins with the ace. A small heart is led to dummy's jack, the queen of heart picks up East's ten and declarer discards his losing nine of spades at the same time.

HEILING PARROT REPLACED, ZOO 'DE-NAZIFIED'

MUNICH, Feb. 15.—(Reuters)—A "Democratic" parrot from a Philadelphia night club, which can say "Buy American goods only" and "I love my wife but I love you, too, Baby," has replaced a "Nazi" parrot which shrieked "Heil Hitler" in the Munich zoo.

The heiling parrot was stolen from the zoo, so the barnyard of a Philadelphia night club, which can say "Buy American goods only" and "I love my wife but I love you, too, Baby," has replaced a "Nazi" parrot which shrieked "Heil Hitler" in the Munich zoo.

Around its neck was a tag on which the donors had scribbled: "We hope the Munich zoo will now be free from any pro-Nazi propaganda. To lighten the zoo's loss, we are sending this democracy-schooled comic."

U.S. Writer Held as Spy

MOSCOW, Feb. 15.—(BUP)—Anna Louise Strong, a prominent American writer for more than a generation, has been arrested as a spy by Soviet Security Police and will be deported immediately, the Soviet press announced today.

All newspaper carried a brief announcement on their back pages describing Mrs. Strong, the widow of a Soviet official, as a "well-known spy."

The announcement said she had managed to slip into the Soviet Union "through the negligence of certain officials dealing with foreign relations, was arrested yesterday by organs of state security," the announcement said.

Mrs. Strong was incriminated in spying and sabotage activity against the Soviet Union. It is reported she will be deported beyond the confines of the Soviet Union within a few days.

Window Washer Admits Homicide

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—(AP)—A window washer was charged with homicide Sunday after he was reported to have admitted he pushed 87-year-old Mrs. Margaret Timm into her bathtub and under water where she was found dead. The prisoner, John Edward Felton, 43, was quoted by police as saying he pushed a bathroom door against the elderly woman when he saw the door opening as he searched her apartment yesterday.

The legal rally turned up in the appeal of Sidney James Phillips against his conviction, and a possible sentence for manslaughter following a July fatal accident on the Alaska Highway.

Ontario Constable Admits Breaking Oath

BELLEVIEW, Ont., Feb. 15.—(CP)—Provincial Constable J. E. Keays Monday admitted breaking the oath he took when he joined the police force.

But he did it "because it was the only means I had of doing something for my family," he testified before a Royal Commission.

Under cross-examination, Keays admitted he went to newspaper offices in 1944 with the story he told Mr. Justice Keiller Mackay last week before the Commission investigating his complaints of fraud, perjury and maladministration of justice by Crown and police officials.

He admitted that it was a breach of his oath as a provincial constable not to make political matters public.

Keays said he knew the newspaper would not publish his news because of libel laws, but he wanted the advice of newspaper men, he said.

Keays was questioned last day by Malcolm Robb, counsel for five of the six policemen Keays named in the allegations which led to the appointment of the commission.

Named by Keays were Belleville Attorney B. C. Donnan of Belleville; Commissioner W. H. Stirling, head of the Ontario Provincial Police; Inspector T. W. Coats, Inspector W. A. Page, Sgt. A. Stringer, Cpl. Sam Irvine and Constables G. B. Purdy and J. B. Dibley.

Mr. Robb's cross-examination of Keays is expected to take at least day.

NO PLEA TAKEN

VICTORIA, B.C., Feb. 15.—(CP)—Appel Court today reviewed what may be the first case in modern British or Canadian legal history in which a man was convicted for a crime without first being asked to plead.

The legal rally turned up in the appeal of Sidney James Phillips against his conviction, and a possible sentence for manslaughter following a July fatal accident on the Alaska Highway.

John L. Farris of Vancouver, British Columbia, said in a statement: "To my knowledge there is no record of Canadian or English case in modern times when this has happened."

The court is withholding any official pronouncement on the situation while awaiting the answer to a telegram sent to stipendiary magistrate Laurence H. Phinney, asking if he knew whether or not a plea was made at the trial Oct. 22 in Whitehorse, Y.T.

Further developments are scheduled for today. "This point is fatal to the conviction, if it is proved," Chief Justice Gordon McGe. Sloan declared. "I say there had been no trial at all."

West Powers Open Drive On Slavery by Russians

By Robert Manning

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y., Feb. 15.—(BUP)—The western powers opened a hard-hitting propaganda drive in the United Nations today based on charges that Russia has enslaved 8,000,000 to 14,000,000 persons in slave labor camps.

The United States asked the UN Economic and Social Council to recommend an international inquiry into forced labor conditions allegedly prevalent in nations of the Soviet bloc.

Assistant secretary of state William D. Lawrence of the United States challenged Russia to permit such an investigation if, as she contends, charges of slavery "behind the Iron Curtain" are untrue.

Great Britain's Christopher Marchese was asked to throw British weight behind the American proposal when the council convened this morning.

The western countries apparently planned an all-out debating session.

OTTAWA, Feb. 15.—(CP)—This will burn up the "old sweats" but the National Defence Department announced yesterday that within the next year it will be issuing bedroom slippers and broadcloth pyjamas to soldiers. # You never save until you start

Most of us have a savings account. But to make it really mean something calls for planned saving... and a strong mind. One way is to work toward what you want most: a new home, a car, an education for your children, the extra security or opportunity that a "nest egg" provides... Savings can mean so many things... The important thing is to start... and to put aside so much a week—every week.

Remember, some are born lucky; smart people save.

The distinction, elegance and grace of the Napoleonic period is recaptured for us in today's fashions. The stately figures of the "Directoire," the grandeur and glitter of the high society of Europe are reborn in the Empress silhouette—the accented bustline, made more vivid by fair lady pastels, stoles and petite caplets.

"Directoire" styling is achieved in stand-up collars, button trims, and saucy weskits. Napoleonic beauties were outstanding in the Empire Look from jackets to jewelry, piquant in Directoire bonnet, ravishing in slim-draped skirt, accented midriff and daring neckline.

Britons call the Hyde Park soap box orator the safety valve of the nation.

I've got a dandy little safety valve right in my own home. Last night she started letting off steam.

Now these domestic Hyde Park orators come without the slightest warning. Like the wise Briton I've learned to let the steam hiss through the living room and hold my peace.

I always remember something Billy Rose of Diamond Horseshoe fame said: "I've known guys who were arguments with their wives but I often see these wives out with other guys."

The Missus can go into high dudgeon about many things but the cost of living shows her to best advantage. What got her all stirred up last night was a comparative study of grocery store ads in The Edmonton Bulletin and Los Angeles Times.

"When," demanded the light of my life, "are they going to stop feeding us that nonsense about how lucky we are compared to the poor people of the United States?"

She cut off a great start. Then she rattled off prices so fast it sounded just like Gordie Williams on a Flyers hockey broadcast.

The trade was a box score that read something like this: Edmonton beef roast per pound, 55 cents; Los Angeles 47 cents; Edmonton lamb chops per pound, 64 cents; Los Angeles 45 cents.

Edmonton piece bacon per pound, 65 cents; Los Angeles 55 cents; Edmonton coffee per pound, 52, 56 and 48 cents; Los Angeles 47, 50 and 45 cents.

Edmonton celery per pound, 17 cents; Los Angeles nine cents.

As a clincher, she flipped over the pages both newspapers and triumphantly noted you were the only one in the world to have a complete edition of the Los Angeles Times.

Civics Board Seeks Increased Health Grant

Equitable financial grants to Edmonton local board of health for maintenance of public health services will be sought from the provincial government.

City commissioners were instructed by city council Monday to request provincial health department officials to eliminate discrimination against the city now granted in the payment of health services grants.

Council strongly endorsed the request of the public health board seeking payment of 50 per cent of the cost of these services. Other municipalities maintaining these services, Edmonton was informed, were receiving grants on the 50 per cent basis.

Mayor Harry Ainlay said that in 1948 the isolation hospital was $15,700 and the cost through services rendered non-resident patients. Of the 80 patients treated in this hospital 374 were non-resident.

Council's survey of property to be used as site for a commercial structure must be made before construction is started, city council ruled Monday night.

Request for the survey was made by Maxwell C. Dewar, city architect, to stem encroachments on abutting properties.

Commissioners concurred in the request by the city architect.

Annual Dog Derby Goes to Post Sunday

Edmonton's fourth annual dog derby for youngsters between eight and 14 is all set for next Sunday on Kingsway.

First official payment is 11-year-old Laurier Payment of 12219 88 street, who has his black two-year-old Skippy all set for the big race.

Final race will be run over a course just short of one mile. The dog derby is jointly sponsored by the Edmonton City Dairy and City Recreation Commission.

The derby has long been a thrill highlight of Edmonton's annual winter carnival days. Valuable prizes will go to the winners.

FEW ENTRIES
Sponsors of the event have been a little worried about the lack of entries received to date. Cold weather has apparently prevented many youngsters from handing in entries to Recreation Commission offices on 100 street, or the R.C. offices 100 street and 102 avenue.

Any boy or girl between eight and 14 may enter the big race. Contestants may be drivers whether they own the dogs or not. No sleigh to carry more than one driver and both sleigh and harness must be approved by the officials in charge of the derby.

Drivers will carry numbers on their backs and owners are permitted to coach their dogs off to start by waving caps or scarves.

SAFETY MEASURE
Dogs should be muzzled for safety where necessary. There will be a number of heats to run the final race with separate heats for big and small dogs.

Any breed is eligible for the race. Entries must be in not later than on Feb. 15.

The program on Sunday will start at 2:30 p.m. sharp.

Membership of the Bible Presbyterian church has doubled during the past year, annual meeting of the congregation was told recently.

Increased growth of the Sunday school and of mission aid was also reported.

During the next year about one-third of the church's budget will be devoted to missionary purposes.

William C. Thomson was elected church treasurer; Mrs. H. W. Wilson was named secretary of the congregation and F. J. Price was elected treasurer of the Sunday school. Henry Gilbert is clerk of the Session.

Connor's Road Folk Seek Property Right

Residents in the "squatters' area" on Connor's Road appealed to city council Monday night to "permit them to purchase the property on which their houses were located so that they could improve the district."

Aldermen instructed city commissioners to make a survey of the land in the "squatters' area" and bring recommendations to council on methods of clearing up this settlement.

NOT POSSIBLE
Residents in the area were understood that no immediate steps would be taken, but they were given assurance that their request to purchase the property could not be denied.

Fred Schultz, 28 Connor's Road, spokesman for the "squatters," said many of the residents in the district had purchased their homes in recent years.

When they purchased the property, he stated, they were given understanding that it would be any time from 30 years before the district was cleared.

Mr. Schultz told aldermen he and other purchasers had given this assurance by officials of the city land department.

Commissioners were instructed to inquire into this matter. City Commissioner D. B. Mendes said it would cost more than the property and land was worth in the district to supply usual services in this area.

DOUBT EXPRESSED
He doubted if it would be possible to provide sewer and water to the present houses on the property.

Commissioners requested council to set a time limit on residence in this area, and proposed a plan for removal of residences should be developed.

Two recent fires in the area, one resulting in the death of a child, precipitated the commissioners' recommendation.

Democracy Is Speaker's Theme
Democracy has a tough route to sail, Rev. Angus J. MacQueen, minister of Robertson United Church, told members of Kiwanis Club Monday.

He was guest speaker at a luncheon held at the Macdonald hotel.

Rev. MacQueen said the ship of democracy faces many perils. He said times are bad—often times running against it. "And it sometimes drifts aimlessly and its timbers are rotten."

He urged the Kiwanians at the luncheon. They are Dr. Guy Gordon, city surgeon, and Clarence Jackson, chief clerk for CPR at Edmonton and a former member of Lethbridge Kiwanis Club.

New Voters' Deal Asked From Gov't

Twelve charter amendments will be submitted to the provincial legislature at the forthcoming session by Edmonton city council which Monday night gave approval to the proposed changes.

They range from changes in the electoral procedure to permit citizens whose names have been left off the voters lists to swear in their votes on election day, to giving the city power to tax in perpetually improvements abutting property.

Objection is taken to the amendment which would give the city power to establish its own insurance company. This objection is regulated by the Insurance Agents' Association of Edmonton.

Commissioner John Hodgson said there was no immediate intention of proceeding with the proposed insurance plan, and amendments then approved the proposed application for the charter amendment.

MANY POWERS
The amendments would give the city power to:

Regulate ambulance services operating in Edmonton for public use and to require that ambulances responding to calls shall carry suitable equipment and be accompanied by a person having medical or first aid qualifications.

Provide that where sewer and water mains are extended along highways within the suburban zone of the city, that parcels of land along such extensions shall be liable to taxation at the same mill rate as parcels situated within the urban zone.

Pass bylaws requiring owners, agents, or occupants of any premises to keep the city to keep the property and any merchandise or material exposed in the open air in a clean, neat and slightly condition.

Exercise such powers of an insurance company, pursuant to the provisions of the Insurance Act, as will enable the council to establish and maintain a plan which may occur to city property by reason of fire or other calamity, including power to re-insure any of such risks with any authorized company.

ALLOW PERMISSION
Provide that in any case where it is deemed necessary council may authorize any civic official or other person to make application to a court of law for an order to remove to hospital or other approved institution any resident who by reason of age or infirmity is incapable of taking physical care of himself or herself.

Acquire by expropriation power where necessary any land, streets, and public works.

Dream Job For Secretary Is Outlined Here

REGINA, Feb. 15.—(CP)—There isn't many such jobs available, but have you ever considered your chances of becoming a penman's secretary?

It isn't essential but here are some of the qualifications that came in handy for Eleanor McKinnon, secretary to Premier Douglas of Saskatchewan.

She is a young, attractive green-eyed brunette, a trim 108 pounds, president of a mental hospital, and a university graduate.

Have a well-developed sense of humor, a constitution that will allow you to whirl about as if on roller skates, and "eternal" patience.

You may, as Miss McKinnon has called on to buy an alarm clock for a delighted old lady who says she is a "Baptist and a Liberal."

Or you may be asked to purchase a pair of heavy woolsen outerwear for a snow-plugged farmer, or a pair of heavy woolsen outerwear for a snow-plugged farmer, or a pair of heavy woolsen outerwear for a snow-plugged farmer.

Then, of course, the whole program will expect you to act as their secretary. University students will practically demand to write their thesis on you.

In charge of home cooking will be Mrs. R. H. Evans, Mrs. William Carter, and Mrs. T. Watson.

Mrs. A. C. Benson is convener of the tea and all proceeds are in aid of fund-raising for the new parish hall.

Newspaper flowers will decorate St. Mary's Anglican church parish hall Thursday when a Valentine tea is held.

Tea will be served from 3 to 5 p.m. Recording the guests will be Mrs. J. J. McNeil, president of the organization.

Flourish tea will be Mrs. T. M. White and Mrs. N. Standish. Homecoming booth will be staffed by Mrs. C. H. Robinson and Mrs. J. H. Garrow.

Mrs. J. H. Garrow, president of the millinery artists and novelties booth, will be in charge of Mrs. W. F. Craft.

Serving will be Mrs. E. H. Paillet, Mrs. H. Cuff, Mrs. Cyril Baines, Mrs. N. E. Creighton, Mrs. F. McManis and Mrs. G. Martin.

Convener is Mrs. W. S. Kent.

CGIT Council To Sponsor Day Of Prayer

Calgary day of prayer will be sponsored by the CGIT Council on March 4. It was decided at the annual meeting of the council held recently in the YWCA.

Further plans for the northern Alberta senior girls' conference, to be held in Edmonton Feb. 25 to 27, will be discussed at the meeting.

Miss Kathleen Sibun was elected regent of IODE at the annual meeting, held recently at the home of Mrs. W. S. Niewchase. Mrs. James Hill was in the chair.

Executive convener, Miss Helen Stewart, reported that the monthly visits were made to patients in the military hospitals and cigarettes and other necessities were distributed. The chapter assisted with parties given for the patients.

Assistance had been given to the operation of Camp Elizabeth, and letters were turned in for Alberta Maternity Assistance, according to a report given by Miss Sibun, child health and family welfare convener.

Education secretary, Mrs. R. Hill, said that the chapter had been added to the Coronation Hospital. Marshall and Municipal school supplies were sent to the chapter's adopted school, and a Christmas parcel for the patients.

Eleven food parcels were sent to Britain. It was announced in the new-year report, given by Mrs. H. Hodgson, that the chapter is to the Queen Elizabeth hospital in London, and donations were given for the patients.

Report given by Mrs. E. A. Coupland showed that a sleigh ride had been held for the blind and their friends. Members had assisted in canvassing for the fund for the blind and Community Chest campaign.

Mrs. H. Macneave said that parcels of home cooking, books and records, and a special Christmas parcel had been sent to the chapter's adopted Santa Station.

More than 200 people are expected to attend the informal affair, for which New Town is in charge of arrangements.

Spring flowers will decorate the tables for the dinner which begins at 7 p.m. Mr. Town will act as chairman, and Rotary president, L. H. Lewis, will welcome the ladies.

Head table guests will include members of Mr. Town's committee, and their wives. They are Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Sutherland, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hufferd, Mr. and Mrs. T. S. A. Sutherland, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Wood, and Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Wood.

Band music will be played by Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Sutherland, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hufferd, Mr. and Mrs. T. S. A. Sutherland, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Wood, and Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Wood.

After the entertainment, dancing will continue until midnight, with music by Mal Meredith's orchestra.

Refunds Favor Not a Right

MONTREAL, Jan. 31.—(CP)—The woman who decides the dress she will wear for a party is a privilege rather than a legal right.

Business Bureau of Montreal says she has no more legal right to ask for a refund than the merchant would have in asking her to bring back the article because he doesn't want to sell it anyway, a spokesman for the Bureau said.

"Every time a woman buys or agrees to buy something, she makes a contract," the spokesman said. "This is true whether she pays cash, makes a deposit, pays by instalment or charges it."

"It is true, generally, whether the agreement is signed or not, but, although some contracts or agreements must be in writing and signed."

Hundreds of women call the Better Business Bureau about refunds. They are generally told that although some stores may take back merchandise this is generally granted as a privilege rather than a legal right.

Business Bureau of Montreal says she has no more legal right to ask for a refund than the merchant would have in asking her to bring back the article because he doesn't want to sell it anyway, a spokesman for the Bureau said.

Drew Wants Provinces Consulted on Nfld. Union

OTTAWA, Feb. 15.—(CP)—Should the provinces be consulted on Newfoundland's union with Canada? That debate-provoking constitutional question may be answered in the commons today in a recorded vote developing from the projected union of Canada and her little neighbor.

It was injected into the simmering union debate yesterday by George Drew, Progressive Conservative leader, through a motion urging the Dominion to consult "at once" with the provinces and not take the union issue a step further until those consultations have been brought to a "satisfactory conclusion."

Mr. Drew said he had nothing against union with Newfoundland. But he did want to protect the provinces against constitutional changes being made without their consent.

DEBATE QUICKLY STARTED

The question produced a running debate and battle-lines were quickly drawn.

Front-rank government speakers said there was no basis for the argument that the provinces first had to be consulted on national issues. The Fathers of Confederation never intended that the provinces should have the right to veto expansion of Canada.

The CCF party then its support behind the government and the Social Crediters said they would vote with the Progressive Conservative Party. Their arguments closely patterned those of the two major parties.

SUNDAY DEAL RULED ILLEGAL, GOOD-BYE $250

OTTAWA, Feb. 15.—(CP)—Consultation of real estate deals on a Sunday is against the Lord's Day Act.

Judge Bruce Boyd made this ruling today when he dismissed action by Allison and Cunningham, real estate agents, who sought a property commission of $250.

Evidence showed the transaction took place on a Sunday. Judge Boyd held the sale was consummated but said the law allows no provisions or exceptions in such transactions on the Sabbath.

150 Answer Advertisement For Paragon

BALTIMORE, Feb. 15.—(AP)—The Hix Trucking Company said yesterday it had received 150 answers to its job advertisement asking for:

"A man of vision and ambition, an after-dinner speaker, night owl, work all day, stay up all night and appear fresh the next day. Must be a man's man, a lady's man, a model husband, a fatherly father, a good provider."

"Must be a sales-promotion expert, be a good credit manager, correspondent, attend all rate meetings, funerals, visit customers in hospitals and jails, contact all accounts every six weeks."

The company said it believes four of the applicants qualify. The job to be filled is freight-traffic selector.

Inside Hollywood Gov't Shuffle Under Attack

By Bob Thomas

HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 15.—(AP)—Jimmy Durante and Buster Keaton are talking the possibility of a seven reteaming.

The two stars were pulled in MGM films in the early days of talkies. Remember their "Spick" routine? Both agreed the film could be remade today with little changes. Jimmy hasn't done a picture in a year and is eager to work again.

The Keaton-Durante combination is just a dream at present, but it's something for MGM to consider. The public seems to be but for comedy these days. Both have told me that "The Paleface" is drawing 50 per cent more business than "Road to Rio" in some places. That's big.

PEOPLE AND THINGS

Paul Herrell returns to his own company for "The Runaway" after "Hope of Sand." His film is about four girl-delinquents. Paul will be in the picture, too.

Edgar Bergen would sign for more than a year with his new air sponsor. He told me he wouldn't get down again, as he was in his last deal.

Paulette Goddard says she can't afford to make any more pictures this year because of taxes. But she isn't as tough as she'll have to be. She must make 12 pictures in the next five years for Paramount.

Vivian De Carter went out in New York for the musical version of "The Little Foxes" and wants to do the show. But don't count on it.

German Reds Plan Propaganda Drive

BERLIN, Feb. 15.—(UPI)—German communists yesterday ordered a gigantic propaganda campaign designed to convince German under Russian rule that their future lies with the Soviet Union.

Plans for it will be discussed this afternoon at a Communist rally scheduled for "Friedrich House," near the American sector border at Potsdamer Platz, where eastern and western forces clashed last summer.

Believable German sources said all available Russian propaganda vehicles would be used to encourage eastern German feeling to combat anti-Soviet feeling at Potsdamer Platz and elsewhere in the western zone.

Duplessis Wants Controlled News

Claims Newspapers Just Propagandists Of Disorder

MONTREAL, Feb. 14.—(CP)—Premier Duplessis of Quebec last night declared that newspapers are acting as propagandists for disorder and Communism by the amount of space they give to them.

Addressing the annual conference of the Association of Newspapers of Quebec, he said: "The newspapers are the cause of the trouble in this province."

It may not be the talk of a politician, he went on, but of a citizen. "I am not a politician and I am not a propagandist," he said.

City Solons Give Aid to Oil Work

More To Allied Industries Than Appears On Surface

By Lloyd Jenkins

EIGHT DIED in the family of Clifford Conant, 39, when fire swept his home in Clayton, N.Y. He is shown with his daughter Susan, 13, only remaining member of the family, shortly after a blaze took the lives of his wife and seven other children. He suffered cuts and burns during rescue attempts.

"We have gone out of our way to assist oil companies," Mayor Harry Ainlay declared in emphasizing that city administration intended to do everything possible to capitalize on oil prosperity.

"They have received priority on services and in obtaining property. City Commissioners spend a lot of their time trying to get them located. We have been criticized for doing too much but we felt it was our duty to give them priority," he said.

Pointing out the tendency of the companies and Calgary Mayor Ainlay admitted that the latter was "a more speculative city."

"This makes Edmonton appear to be taking less interest in oil," he said. He noted the application to the Legislature to establish an oil exchange here, "which may make quite a difference."

Calgary, he said, had been wise in tying up oil companies with long-term leases. Certain companies, therefore, which wished to come here were unable to do so.

IMPROVEMENT SEEN—Also noting criticism over the lack of office space, Mayor Ainlay said he anticipated that large concentrations of Federal and provincial offices, which wished to come here were unable to do so.

With projected construction of a $2,000,000 federal building, to centralize Dominion government offices, and a $2,000,000 provincial building, the city's office space situation will begin to improve.

Completion of the bus terminal will also make available additional office accommodation.

Flood Danger Eliminated

OTTAWA, Feb. 15.—(CP)—Flood danger to railways along British Columbia's Fraser river is being eliminated by an improved dyke system, according to an interim report of the Fraser River District Board tabled in the commons yesterday.

Trade Minister Howe brought in the report of the board, formed jointly between the Dominion and British Columbia governments last summer after disastrous floods had caused heavy damage.

The board reported that by the end of 1948, its $10,000,000 operation had proceeded to the point where $1,831,000 had been spent.

Noting that a Canadian Pacific Railway embankment at Natic had blown out under water pressure in the flood, it declared:

"We have diverted the railway completely from the diking system and now are finishing a stretch of seven miles of new dikes which not only takes in more useful acreage but avoids for all time the possibility of Vancouver being again completely isolated as happened in 1948."

It added that as a result of that change, and a number of dike realignments at other points, "no other railway in the world is anywhere else subjected during high water to dangerous hydrostatic heads."

Dear Tawasis:

Today I'm going to introduce myself to all fellow Tawasis because I want to know each and every one of you.

But—wait a moment! A funny little Indian is pulling at my pen so that I can scarcely write. There he is at the top of the column waving a big bell. He says he wants to be introduced to me, and that is certainly awkward for me, because he simply doesn't have a name.

SEED ORDER CANCELLED

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—(CP)—The economic ministry administration yesterday announced cancellation of earlier appropriation of $25,000 for purchase of Canadian seeds for Italy. No explanation was offered.

Development which may be gradual but snowballing—industries attracting industries. The first thing to get going is to get going.

While world oil consumption has been doubled in the past 12 years, proven reserves have tripled. Yet this is the age of mechanization.

Through new techniques and new uses, oil will continue to spread its benefits to the civilized world.

Edmonton should benefit proportionally. This is both a hope and a responsibility.
